- 2) Role model the expected behaviours of Housing Plus employees.
- 3) Ensure Volunteers are made to feel welcome and are treated as part of the team

6 Process

The steps outlined below are intended to provide guidance as to the management of Volunteers at Housing Plus.

6.1 Recruitment

6.1.1 Recruitment

When Volunteering roles are identified the Volunteer Coordinator will work with Housing Plus Team Leaders and Management to create the appropriate position description.

The positions will then be advertised via one or more of the following:

- a. Tenant newsletters
- b. Social media
- c. External Stakeholder Newsletters
- d. The Housing Plus website
- e. SEEK Volunteers

Housing Plus is committed to ensuring that recruitment and selection decisions are based on the principle of merit. Volunteers will be selected based on whether they have the right skills and qualifications required to perform the role.

Housing Plus is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to equity and diversity in all employment practices including recruitment and selection of volunteers.

All recruitment activity must adhere with Housing Plus' Code of Conduct, Bullying, Harassment and Discrimination Policy, the Diversity and Inclusion Policy and all relevant legislation.

6.1.2 Volunteer Selection

Selection involves the process of matching a person to a role. While Housing Plus seeks Volunteers to meet its needs, Volunteers similarly seek an organisation which meets their needs. Matching therefore involves focusing on a win-win outcome for Housing Plus and the Volunteer.

Volunteers interested in undertaking voluntary activities with Housing Plus will be asked to complete the Volunteer Application outlining their skills and availability.

6.1.3 Volunteer Screening

All Volunteer applications are considered on a merit basis.

Assessment of suitability will include review of relevant experience and competencies that demonstrate the ability to achieve agreed outcomes, and capacity to attend at agreed times.

The following Checks will be completed prior to an applicant being offered the Volunteer role:

- a) Personal Reference checks (2)
- b) WWCC (Working with Children Check)
- c) Police Checks
- d) For some volunteer roles, a valid Driver's Licence may also be required.

The return of an invalid Working with Children check will deem an applicant unsuitable for a volunteer role due to the nature of our work.

Should a National Police Check be returned with a disclosable outcome a decision will be made in consultation with the CEO, HR Manager, Relative Executive and Volunteer Coordinator, on a case by case basis as to the applicants suitability for a volunteer role at Housing Plus with consideration given to type, severity and dates of disclosure.

6.1.4 Right to offer a Volunteer Role

Housing Plus has the right to offer or withhold an offer of a Volunteer role to any applicant at any time. The offer of a Volunteer role at Housing Plus is in no way a commitment of a future paid role at Housing Plus.

6.2 Induction

All Volunteers will be offered appropriate information and training to conduct their roles including training on Housing Plus policies and procedures as they relate to volunteers. Successful completion of this training is a condition of ongoing engagement with Housing Plus.

All Volunteers will be expected to read, understand, and agree to the policies and procedures as outlined on the Volunteer Portal. Upon reading the policies and procedures, the Volunteer will be required to acknowledge and agree to the policies and procedures.

All Volunteers are expected to sign a copy of their volunteer role description indicating that they are equipped for the duties expected of them and agree to the responsibilities of their role.

A Volunteer Agreement will be part of the Volunteer Induction process and Volunteers will be asked to sign prior to commencing their role.

A Formal Induction program will include:

- a) Meet and Greet with CEO
- b) Overview of Housing Plus – Conducted by the Volunteer Coordinator
- c) Volunteering at Housing Plus – overview of Code of Conduct, policies and procedures including WHS, rights and responsibilities,
- d) Meet the team – introduction to the Volunteer Supervisor and team they will be part of during their time at Housing Plus
- e) Review of Volunteer Role Description
- f) Allocation of equipment where necessary

6.3 Policies and Procedures

All volunteers will be expected to read, understand, and agree to the policies and procedures as outlined during the Induction and on the Volunteers Portal.

Successful completion of training modules on SharePoint via the Volunteer Portal is a condition of ongoing volunteer engagement at Housing Plus.

6.3.1 Training

Volunteers will be provided with appropriate information and practical training to perform their roles.

The Volunteer Supervisor will work with the Volunteer Coordinator to identify initial training needs in line with the Volunteer Role Description.

Successful completion of this training is a condition of ongoing volunteer engagement with Housing Plus.

Volunteer Supervisors are responsible for identifying and communicating to the Volunteer Coordinator any ongoing training needs of the Volunteers.

6.3.2 Supervision and feedback

All Volunteers shall receive appropriate supervision in the exercise of their functions.

The Volunteer Supervisor will conduct a pre-shift check-in to clarify the Volunteer's duties and responsibilities for that shift. The Supervisor will also conduct a post-shift check-in to discuss any issues, successes, and share information.

In addition, Volunteers will have regular monthly discussions with their Volunteer Supervisor to ensure that the volunteer role is meeting both the expectations of the Supervisor and the individual Volunteer.

A formal review will take place every six months between the Volunteer Coordinator and the Volunteer.

6.3.3 Holidays

Housing Plus acknowledges that taking holidays is an important part of looking after your wellbeing.

Volunteers will be asked to provide as much notice as possible to the Volunteer Supervisor if he or she is to be away for a period. If a Volunteer is away for an extended period (i.e. longer than 3 months), the Volunteer Agreement may be terminated however the Volunteer will be welcome to re-apply upon their return.

6.4 Volunteer Reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses

All Volunteers shall be reimbursed for pre-approved expenditure approved by the Volunteer Coordinator incurred in the exercise of their functions.

If there are costs associated with the service delivered by a Volunteer, he or she is to apply in writing via email if possible, text message if email is unavailable prior to incurring the cost to the Volunteer Coordinator.

If the Volunteer Coordinator approves the expense, the Volunteer can then make the purchase and complete a Receipts Expenses Claim form, attach copies of the receipts, and send to the Volunteer Coordinator via email for approval.

If the Volunteer does not have access to email, they are to present the completed paperwork along with receipts to their Volunteer Supervisor who will forward to the Volunteer Coordinator on their behalf. Once approved, the Volunteer Coordinator will send these documents on, including the approval (email is ok), to accounts@housingplus.com.au and the Volunteer will be reimbursed.

Claims for reimbursement of approved expenses must be supported by a valid receipt and /or evidence of purchase from the dealer to whom the expense was paid, and which identifies the service or product purchased, the date(s) the service/product was provided, and the total cost (approved vehicle mileage costs are an exception).

Housing Plus will not reimburse Volunteers for prohibited or non-approved expenses incurred while undertaking agreed Volunteer roles and activities. All reimbursements for out of pocket expenses are to be processed in accordance with Housing Plus' Schedule of Delegations.

6.5 Workplace Health and Safety

Housing Plus understands its obligations to Volunteers under both the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 and Regulation 2017. Housing Plus provides a safe working environment for Volunteers.

Housing Plus' work health and safety practices and procedures apply to Volunteers. Accordingly Housing plus will communicate the relevant safety requirements and responsibilities to Volunteers.

All employees and other stakeholders including volunteers have a shared responsibility for ensuring the health and safety of all persons in the workplace, including visitors.

Housing Plus is committed to:

- The achievement of a physically and psychologically safe and incident free Work Environment.

- The promotion of good health within the workplace .
- Ensuring risks are identified, eliminated, or controlled.
- Continuously improving our Workplace Health and Safety Management System thereby ensuring safety practices are maintained and enhanced.
- Ensuring that Employees and Other Stakeholders including Volunteers are appropriately trained in WHS in line with position accountability and responsibilities including individual obligations to personal safety.
- Ensuring WHS is an integral part of all project planning and work activities.
- Providing appropriate facilities, equipment, resources, and services to enable Volunteers to perform their role safely.
- Regular consultation and communication with Employees and Other Stakeholders including Volunteers in relation to WHS initiatives and programs; and
- Compliance with all relevant Acts, Regulations, Standards and Codes of Practice.

6.5.1 Accident and Incident Reporting

Volunteers must report any incident or injuries to their Volunteer Supervisor immediately. The Volunteer Supervisor must then log the incident using the Incident Reporting form on PlusUs.

6.6 Termination of Agreement

Housing Plus reserves the right to terminate a Volunteer work agreement without cause or notice.

6.6.1 Resignation

A Volunteer may decide to finish their Volunteering for a variety of reasons. Notice of resignation should be communicated as soon as possible, preferably with at least two weeks' notice.

Any Housing Plus equipment such as identification badges and safety items are to be returned at the conclusion the Volunteer's last shift.

6.7 Management Reporting Requirements

The Volunteer Coordinator will report regularly to Executive and Board on Volunteer activity hours including feedback from Volunteer Supervisors and Management generally regarding the effectiveness of the program.

Volunteer Supervisors will report regularly to the Volunteer Coordinator on Volunteer activity hours and productivity.
